Harmony Hospitality's new Hampton Inn and Suites at 1421 North Battlefield Boulevard, Chesapeake, Virginia hosted a tremendously successful grand opening on October 29, 2008. Among the approximately 75 guests in attendance were the Mayor of Chesapeake, Dr. Alan P. Krasnoff, several Chesapeake City Council members, as well as other dignitaries from the city government and the region. The event was highlighted by a ribbon cutting and enthusiastic speeches by Mayor Krasnoff and Harvey Moore, Vice President of Harmony Hospitality. Guests feasted on a delectable selection of hors d'oeuvre and liquid refreshments and enjoyed tours of the new facility.

The new Hampton Inn and Suites is conveniently located at the crossroads of I-64 and Battlefield Boulevard adjacent to the U.S. Post Office. In the heart of Chesapeake's newest growth area, the hotel features 104 deluxe guest rooms and suites and is near numerous corporate offices. This prime location just off I-64 is convenient to downtown Norfolk, the Virginia Beach oceanfront and all of Hampton Roads.

The Hampton Inn and Suites welcomes guests with a beautifully decorated new concept "perfect mix" lobby, creating a comfortable community atmosphere. Hotel amenities include complimentary wireless high-speed internet access, a business center, a sundry "suite" shop, 1200-square-foot meeting room and large fitness center overlooking a delightful indoor heated pool and whirlpool spa.

Room amenities include the "Make it Hampton" package including a decorator designed bathroom with wooden vanity, Cloud Nine bedding package in king and double queen configurations, lap desk for ease of working in bed, a 32-inch flat-panel TV featuring cable and pay-per-view movies, free local phone calls, work desk, and all the amenities you expect at Hampton Inns. Suites feature a microwave, refrigerator and granite top wet bar with spacious sitting area and pull-out sofa.

Complimentary hot and cold breakfast is served daily in the lobby for all registered guests and Hampton's famous 100% satisfaction guarantee ensures high-quality service. Everything the discerning traveler desires awaits in a beautifully designed 5-story hotel with ample parking, offering the business and leisure traveler comfortable accommodations. The visitor to South Hampton Roads and Chesapeake has a wonderful new hotel to call “home” at the Hampton Inn and Suites Battlefield Boulevard.
